Long to be Remembered Performances

'A large audience comfortably filled the cathedral, and the prolonged applause matched the quality of what this fine choir delivered for Karen Grylls.' John Button Dominion Post.

Voices NZ Chamber Choir's performance of the Durufé and Fauré Requiems in the Wellington Cathedral of St Paul on 7 June drew much acclaim from the critics and audience. Peter Mechen on his website Middle C review said '...very great credit to conductor Karen Grylls and to her soloists, instrumentalists and singers, for a splendid and long-to-be-remembered pair of performances!'

Lexus Song Quest Final

A long list of New Zealand Youth Choir Alumni, including Teddy Tahu Rhodes, Martin Snell, Jonathan Lemalu, Anna Leese and Madeleine Pierard, have enjoyed success in the prestigious Lexus (used to be Mobil) Song Quest. In 2014 two former NZYC members and a current member appear in the Song Quest final. Soprano Isabella Moore and tenor Oliver Sewell are past members and Benson Wilson baritone is a current member of the choir.

We wish good luck to them and the three other young soloists, baritones Edward Laurensen and Christian Thurston together with our performance colleague Bianca Andrew. The final takes place on Saturday 26 July 2014 in Auckland. Find out more at <http://songquest.co.nz/>.

Going South

Details on the already announced New Zealand Youth Choirs residency and concerts in Dunedin and Christchurch later this year can be found on the Choirs Aotearoa website at <http://www.choirsnz.co.nz/youth/events>.
